

Ms. A. 9. 2. 2. p. 51
My dear Maria

I have a few minutes while our mutual friend W<sup>m</sup> Bassett is in waiting, to say to our dear friends in Boston that my late visit among them affords unmingled satisfaction & the kindness received from them is gratefully cherished.

I found on opening my valise that in the hurry of putting up my clothes - I took a comb which does not belong to me - I'd here with return it - I desire affectionate remembrance to those with whom I so pleasantly mingled. - Anna Hopper is 196

much pleased that thou feels it in thy heart to contribute some of your labours to our Fair, and desires me to say, such aid will be very acceptable. The present from the dear old gentleman - your Father, was received with pleasure

Our Free Produce Meeting has been interesting and we may hope for some good results. at least the strengthening of another in the effort to become consistent advocates for the enslaved.

I shall be glad to hear from thee soon I hope to write to thee more fully also in long

thy increasingly attached friend L. Mott.

Philada - 10 Mo. 10th - 39

Tell dear Edmund Quincy that if any one was to be noted specially in our Non Resistant Meeting for what they said that one I think should have been Adin Ballou - not L. Mott

L. Mott
1839

Oct 16th

Ms. A. 9. 2. 12, p. 51

Maria W. Chapman

Boston

Wm Barlett

Mass